widow, a Gosha woman, none to protect her & no other means to live upon.

Though the pension ~~is~~ a life grant, it is usual to continue it in the name of the deceased heirs, in consideration of the poor circumstances of the claimant.

For precedents please see G.O. Nos. P.P. 97-8 of 30-11-03 & P.P. 13 of 16-9-96 wherein the life pensions (of the same family to which the present petitioner belong) were continued to the heirs on the death of the grantee.

A draft is submitted forwarding the petition to the D.C. Mysore for report.

The pension in question was not a hereditary one. It was a pure life grant and it lapsed about five years ago on the death of the last holder - Hazarabi, the petitioner's mother in law. Strictly speaking, no claim to the lapsed pension can be entertained & it seems also inadvisable to revive a small pension of Rs 4 which ceased to be drawn some years ago. The last holder's daughter-in-law & son are however, reported to be in indigent circumstances & to be deserving, in the Dy Commr's opinion, of some consideration. If, in view
